G. Treasurer

Only a very small number of people have paid for Presentation Night.

Teams should use direct deposit if possible – it is easier for everyone. Account details are on team fee envelopes

H. Tournament Director

Earls of Erindale (Div. 5) have withdrawn. Their matches will now be byes.

Kaleen Misfits – 5th team registered for Kaleen Tavern – are still looking for a venue (will advise teams of venue each week until a permanent venue is found).

The public holidays has affected the schedule, particularly the Ladies Singles – will be flexible with nomination form deadlines, however, payment must be received by the end of the week.

All other trial fees are due at the next meeting (April). No forms will be accepted without payment.

Last year, 3 adjudicators in particular gave up a lot of time to help out with the trials – Trent Billington, Scrol, Cath Jones.

Motion
That trial entry fees are waived for Trent Billington, Scrol and Cath Jones
Proposed: Chris Jones		Seconded: Matt Kendrick
For: 39	Against: 0	Abstain: 3
Motion Passed

I. Assistant Tournament Director

Have been working on rankings - many missing stats have been added and some rankings have changed. Nicole Welsh tops the Ladies and Rony Sood is the No. 1 ranked player.

Rankings have been updated for the last 2 seasons. Captains should check results.

Draft State of Origin team lists is available. Players must be registered this season to be eligible.

Team grading options were distributed last Friday. Captains should read through the options before next meeting

Scrol: The Captain of the Southside State of Origin team did not get a medallion

Joseph Morrall: Will fix it.

JR: Is it possible to have some of the Ladies trial events on Sunday. Ladies who work on Saturdays are disadvantaged/

Chris Jones: round 1 was scheduled for Saturday as most players requested it. Will contact ladies to see if anything can be done.

Joseph Marrall: For Presentation Night, we spent $1500 on venue and meals, and $6500 on trophies. Is this an appropriate split?
